THE DAILY BEE. COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Saturday Morning, June 20. SUBSCRIPTION BATES,

MINOR MENTION.

Get your white hats of Bliss. They all say that "Biss undersells them all in stylish white hats."

The Missouri river is rapidly falling, and there are no fears of an overflow.

Every lady and child who buys a hat to-day at Bliss' will receive a nobby fan.

Dr. D. H. Henry, pastor of the first baptist church of this place, returned yesterday from Omaha, where he had been to attend a council of recognition called to recognize the colored baptist church in that city.

Services at the baptist church as usual next Sunday. Morning, at 10:30; evening, at 8 o'clock. In the morning, preaching "For Jesus' Sake;" in the evening, "The Prayer of the Dying city yesterday. Seats free, All cordially invited."

The evening Herald forgot for two days this week to announce that it is the "organ" of the workingmen, "organized and Mathews and family. unerganized." The emission has been noticed, by the Herald office, at least, and now that the Wabash strike is atattracting attention the notice again appears in its usual place.

The case of the state of Iowa against George Wheeler at Koos' place on the eral weeks, returned yesterday to his home in Crescent city road on a Saturday night this city. some time since, the facts of which appeared in the BEE at the time, occupied the attention of the district court all day Tuesday. yesterday and was given to the jury last evening.

The examiners, the Hoa. John Rush and Dr. M. J. O'Rourke, of Omaha, completed the examinations of St. Francis and St. Joseph scademies yesterday. The examinations proved satisfactory to all concerned. The schools will remain open until the 26th instant. The commencement exercises take place on the 30th, at St. Francis, in the forenoon.

Action was yesterday brought in Justice Hendrick's court by David German against Melvin Walters, for embezzlement, and the ease is to be tried at two o'clock this afternoon. It appears that German owned a wagon and Walters was to act as driver and receive one-half of ne 1 10 76 38; $1,440.
